3. ITEMS SUBJECT TO CUSTOMS DUTIES:

Travelers may bring into the country other items not included in the above list which value doesn't exceed US$ 1 000,00 per trip and up to US$ 3 000,00 per calendar year, for which they shall pay a fee of 14% over their custom value; provided that due to their quantity, nature or diversity, they are not presumed to be used for commercial or industrial purposes.

4. RESTRICTED OR FORBIDDEN ITEMS:

In order to bring restricted items (agricultural, wildlife, and cultural heritage products, weapons and ammunitions, etc.) into the country, travelers must obtain appropriate authorization from the relevant entity. Not declaring these items upon their arrival or departure may result in civil penalties and/or criminal prosecutions. Items not allowed to be brought into the country include: used clothing and footwear not considered as part of the traveler's baggage, foreign beverages named "Pisco"; among others, which will be subject to seizure.

5. OBLIGATION TO DECLARE MONEY AND/OR MONETARY INSTRUMENTS:

All travelers that bring or take out of Peru more than US $ 10 000,00 or other currency equivalent, in cash and/or in monetary instruments, are required by law to declare them; not declaring or failure to declare the total amount that you are carrying, will result in seizure of the total amount as well as civil penalties and/or criminal prosecutions. (Section 28 and 31 of the 27693 Act, Financial Intelligence Unit). For this purpose, travelers must request SUNAT – ADUANAS a written evidence of their declaration.

6. TEMPORARY ACTIVITIES:

Travelers are allowed to ask to enter temporarily to our country for up to 12 months, the following items: The tools and equipments to be used by professionals or technicians, who come to the country to perform a service or activity, provided they are portable and capable of being individually identifiable; among other articles. For that purpose the traveler must fill in an Entry/Departure Temporary Declaration form and make a bond deposit for an amount equivalent to the Customs duties and taxes. Likewise, non-resident travelers are allowed to enter temporarily, without a bond deposit, sport items for personal use and items and equipment used to perform activities related to adventure tourism.
